

Richmond Community College Foundation

Richmond Community College is expanding the college's course offerings within the Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) program. The enhancements will include three additional Nurse Aide II courses, allowing CNA students to reach the second level of Nurse Assistant education. The initiative meets the needs of Richmond Community College CNA students aiming to expand their employment options and local healthcare employers experiencing a shortage of qualified nurses and nurse aides in Richmond and Scotland counties.