

As one of the first Ribbon of Hope grantees, Allegro's free classes at Carolinas Medical Center empower medically fragile children with disabilities to reap the health and educational benefits of movement without the risk of serious medical complications out of close proximity to emergency doctors.