

Alliance for Children & Youth's certified teachers provide hands-on science activities and projects using inquiry based learning in an after school enrichment and learning structure in Gaston County. The program targets 6th – 8th graders who demonstrate an interest in science with a potential to enhance their abilities, but also are at risk of dropping out of school.