

Motheread Literacy Program

This 2017 Ribbon of Hope grant awarded to the Anson County Partnership for Children will launch the Motheread program, which will serve vulnerable families with children ages 0 to 5. Motheread provides parents with lessons to gain literacy skills and ways to also effectively teach their children literacy skills. The program projects to work with 48 families in a group setting in the county.