

Blue Ridge Community Health Services

Hendersonville, NC

The nonprofit received funding to expand their school based health services program into two additional schools during 2009 so they may provide increased mental health care access to students in the community. This is an expansion of services that are proven to work in Henderson County.