

Haywood Community College Adult Education Program

Clyde, NC

This 2009 Ribbon of Hope grant supported improving health literacy in Haywood County. In collaboration with health professionals and organizations in the community, the college provided health education and awareness alongside adult education classes, targeting at-risk and underserved populations. Major goals of the project included; improving skills in communication, reading instructions, researching health information, deconstructing media ads, and building advocacy awareness.