

The North Carolina Institute for Child Development Professionals proposes to develop a Child Care Health Consultant (CCHC) tiered certification process in order to merge consultants' health education, continuing education, and child care technical assistance skills. The organization will lead a one-year process to develop and field test the CCHC Certification process and will leverage its strong partnerships to sustain the program. The pilot is expected to be in place in 2016.