

This 2008 Ribbon of Hope grant supported activities in Pasquotank County engaging children in Science Fair 101. This project focused on strengthening elementary students' understanding of the Scientific Method and appreciation of practical application of sciences to provide approximately 1,000 students, 4th and 5th graders, with hands-on science activities and programs, as well as access to scientists, which culminate in their required science fair.

Port Discover