

Rockingham County Education Foundation

This 2010 grant provided additional college advisors at Rockingham County High Schools. These advisors helped students prepare for college entrance exams, provided guidance in filling out application forms, helped them locate and apply for financial aid. This program has a proven success rate as seen by increased SAT scores, college admissions, and scholarships received.