

Triangle Aphasia Project

The Ribbon of Hope grant funds supports Aphasia Connects – a program that targets and advances community reengagement for people with aphasia in North Carolina. The organization will initiate a new 9-week summer program in 2017, in which people with aphasia will be recruited to serve as reading tutors for children participating in Read and Feed's summer reading program.