

American Social Health Association

RTP, NC

This 2009 Ribbon of Hope grant supported a Chatham County collaborative pilot to test innovative methods of reaching populations with low literacy levels about cervical cancer detection and prevention. The pilot targeted an audience at high risk of the disease, but that utilize services at low rates.