

Educator in the Gardens

The Airlie Gardens Foundation will use Ribbon of Hope funds to support its Educator in the Garden program. The program addresses the educational needs of its residents and visitors by providing a more comprehensive education and interpretation program to reach more people and break down the barriers to nature and green space, and increase science knowledge.