

Beaufort County Community College

The Beaufort County Community College will initiate a Community Paramedic Training Program, meeting two specific employee needs 1) provide "highly qualified trained employees" to fill positions and 2) provide upgraded training to local employers who have workers on board, but do not have the training capacity or room to train. By offering this locally, companies will recruit locally, lowering recruiting costs and hiring long term employees.