

The BELL \(Building Educated Leaders for Life\) Foundation proposes to deliver its award-winning summer program to approximately 120 at-risk scholars at two elementary schools in Durham County. The 5-week program will mitigate summer learning loss by providing academic instruction, experiential learning, and enrichment courses. Duke University Office of Durham and Regional Affairs and the East Durham Children's Initiative have partnered with BELL to expand the program.