

Brunswick County Literacy Council

The purpose of the Literacy for All project is to enhance the Brunswick County Literacy Council's capacity to improve literacy in Brunswick County. The program targets a broad audience of adults (between the ages of 19 to 44) within the community who want to improve their literacy; participants include high school dropouts, English language learners, individuals who want to improve their literacy for personal or professional reasons, and individuals under court supervision. Program activities include outreach efforts to recruit adult learners and recruitment of volunteer tutors.
