

This 2008 Ribbon of Hope grant helped establish a new teen volunteer program at Catawba Science Center, Scienteens. The program will promote the love of science among students ages 12 to 16 in the Hickory Public School System. Student volunteers will be trained to conduct hands-on science activities for the public visiting the Center. Students will volunteer at least four hours a month.