

Chatham Family Resource Center

This Siler City nonprofit's 2008 Ribbon of Hope grant supported a Lay Education Advisors (LEAs) education project. The project provided parenting education services to 75 families, reaching 115 children prenatal to age 3. Parents and children participated in early childhood activities to support child development and to ready them for school.