

Chatham Outreach Alliance

CORA's Mobile Market is a mobile food pantry created with a March 2021 Ribbon of Hope grant award. The mobile food pantry will serve over 4,600 individuals living in poverty in Chatham County. The proposed initiative addresses an increased local need due to the pandemic and will provide access to meals for food-insecure individuals without reliable access to transportation. Chatham Outreach Alliance has demonstrated success with similar initiatives in the past.