

Communities
In Schools

Cleveland County

The 2008 Ribbon of Hope grant supported the implementation of Mad Science, into the CIS program in Cleveland County. Mad Science activities include hands-on science laboratory experiences, science fairs, specific science curriculum and science focused field trips. Student are placed in small groups with youth in grades 3 – 8. The program seeks to improve science literacy and increase interest in science careers.