

The 2008 Ribbon of Hope grant supported the CIS's Golden Opportunity One-to-One School Based Mentoring Program that was serving 75 children; however, with additional funding the program could serve 150 students expanding into two county high schools providing mentors to at-risk youths. The program targeted high-risk students in grades four through eight in this economically challenged area to keep children in school.