

Communities in Schools of Forsyth County

This program provided mentoring to high school students through the Graduation Coach Program in Winston-Salem. Coaches work to ensure the successful transition of students from middle to high school and into post-secondary education or work. The initiative provides comprehensive prevention/intervention to students at risk of grade retention or dropping out.