

Communities in School Wake County will use this 2019 Ribbon of Hope grant to provide programming in four public housing communities through neighborhood community learning centers. Activities will engage 25-75 students in grades pre-K to 12 daily. Experiential and collaborative learning through STEM-focused project-based activities are designed to improve social-emotional and physical health wellbeing.