

the
Down East Partnership
for Children

The Down East Partnership for Children's two initiatives, Ready Schools and Ready Communities, build relationships between schools, communities, and families to help improve student achievement. Funding will enhance these two initiatives by providing school and community leaders and families professional development in analyzing data and implementing strategies to address school and community needs.