

Exploring Joara Foundation, Inc.

Archaeology Adventures

The Exploring Joara Foundation will use Ribbon of Hope funds to launch the Archaeology Adventures program, an interactive STEM/cultural heritage program designed to engage students in grades 4th-8th in public archaeology. The organization will also equip approximately 50 teachers with skills and lesson plans needed to better engage their students in STEM programming that directly correlates with Western NC history.