

Families First, Inc.

Families First, Inc.'s mission is to address problems on domestic violence and sexual assault. The evidence-based Safe Dates program raises awareness of dating violence, including what constitutes healthy and abusive dating relationships and causes and consequences of dating abuse, and provides youths with skills and resources for dating abuse identification and prevention. The 9-session program will be presented to 9th graders in all schools in the two counties served.