

Family Resources of Cherokee County

The Parent and Child Interaction Therapy program will use 2017 Ribbon of Hope grant funds to provide parenting workshops in order to decrease incidents of child abuse and neglect, and will serve families in rural Cherokee County. The program focuses on decreasing externalizing child behavior problems and increasing social skills, and improving the parent-child attachment relationship. Additionally parents and children in Clay, Graham, Macon and Swain counties could be served with this program.