

The Friends of the WNC Nature Center Inc will use the $25,000 Ribbon of Hope grant funds to expand its offsite Outreach Education Program. The education program provides hands-on, age-appropriate science programs in schools, libraries, day cares, and other community establishments. Funds will be used to expand the program to a year-round format and increase the number of program sessions offered to participating program sites.

Friends of the Western North Carolina Nature Center Inc