

STEM Initiative

Guilford College's new STEM initiative will increase opportunities for traditionally underserved and underrepresented students in middle school to become fully engaged in STEM education with this 2016 Ribbon of Hope grant. Activities will include tutoring and mentoring by Guilford College students, laboratory time, college admissions workshops, and campus visits.