

HANDMADE
in AMERICA

A 2008 Ribbon of Hope grant supported this Buncombe County nonprofit's unique education program. The Science of Sound and Space program allowed Buncombe County students to participate in hands-on artists' residencies designed to teach math and science concepts experientially and then share their experiences in live performances and written documentation.