

A 2008 Ribbon of Hope grant supported this Durham County nonprofit's efforts to develop a public/private partnership to provide mental health intervention and support activities for homeless individuals in the county.