

Johnson C. Smith University

The JCSU Summer Science Enrichment Program is a new two-week summer camp program to enhance rising freshmen and sophomores' attitudes and learning achievement in the areas of biology and math. Targeted students reside in west Charlotte, an economically disadvantaged area of the city. The 2016 Ribbon of Hope funds will also enable the University to receive a $25,000 matching grant.