

Latino Advocacy Coalition

This Ribbon of Hope grant works to address literacy for the Latino population in Henderson County. Approximately 10% of the total population in the county in 2008. The program will provide adult literacy services including financial, digital, ESL, and GED training to an ever growing Latino population in Western North Carolina. The program hopes to reduce isolation and increase success understanding the region's economy.