

Literacy Council of Buncombe County

This 2009 Ribbon of Hope grant supported the Reading for Two program. The program allowed women to enroll in English for Speakers of Other Languages courses and/or strengthen their basic adult literacy skills while simultaneously helping their children develop their own language ability and become better prepared for school.