

Little Pink Houses of Hope expanded its signature model of service providing respite care for breast cancer survivors and their families. The expanded model included additional ongoing, community-based support and palliative care through the LPHOH Breast Cancer Family Center. This is a strong and innovative program filling a need in the community, and is supported by Elon University as well as the Duke Comprehensive Cancer Center.