

This 2010 Ribbon of Hope grant supported one of the college's healthcare programs. The project used the funding to utilize state-of-the-art simulator mannequins for student education and healthcare workforce training. This project is estimated to impact 600 students at the community college, which is serving Mitchell, Avery, and Yancey counties.