

Neuse River Foundation and Center for Applied Aquatic Ecology

A 2008 Ribbon of Hope grant supported the RiverKids Floating Classroom Program that provided instruction to 8th grade students and their teachers including: 1) monitoring the river; 2) hands-on opportunities to collect water quality data aboard the ship; 3) career education; and 4) encouraging students to become active RiverKids and take part in local community water quality programs.