

Pitt Community College Foundation

Pitt Community College will expand its High School Technical Academy to serve an additional twenty students from four high schools in Pitt County Schools through education and training in industrial technology programs. The 2019 Ribbon of Hope grant program will address identified skill gaps in general mechanical abilities and problem solving skills in Pitt County.