

Stokes County Mental Health

Walnut Cove, NC

A 2008 Ribbon of Hope grant supported an educational program to build awareness about mental illness. The program worked to educate citizens about mental illness, and advocated for those who need assistance and empowered those needing care to seek help.