UNC Pembroke Celebrating Reading & Writing

The Literacy Commons program will use 2016 Ribbon of Hope funds to expand its Celebrating Reading and Writing project. The program will train and deploy University of North Carolina Pembroke (UNCP) student-mentors to tutor 3rd grade students in language arts instruction under the supervision of Public Schools of Robeson County classroom teachers and UNCP faculty. The program will also produce and distribute school-based literary magazines to increase success in reading and writing, critical thinking skills, and personal growth and well-being.
